

THE REUTERS INSTITUTE
FOR THE STUDY OF JOURNALISM

&

THE MCDONALD CENTRE
FOR THEOLOGY, ETHICS & PUBLIC LIFE

JOURNALISM AND PUBLIC RESPONSIBILITY

This series of seminars will be held on the following Wednesdays in Hilary Term from 4-5.45pm in Christ Church, Lecture Room 2.

- Jan 20 Journalism & Public Responsibility: Impossible Combination?
John Lloyd
Director of Journalism, Reuters Institute, Oxford; Contributing Editor, Financial Times
Nigel Biggar
Regius Professor of Moral Theology and Director, McDonald Centre
- Jan 27 Journalism and Extremism: The Record
Martin Bright
Political Editor, Jewish Chronicle;
former Political Editor, New Statesman
- Feb 3 Title TBA
James Brandon
Head of Communications, Quilliam Foundation; author of Unlocking Al-Qaeda: Islamist Extremism in British Prisons
- Feb 10 Journalism and Trust: Ethics for Mediated Communication
Onora O'Neill
Professor of Philosophy, University of Cambridge; former President, British Academy
- Feb 24 Appearance & Reality: What Plato Can Teach the Media
David Oderberg
Professor of Philosophy, University of Reading
- Mar 3 What Ethic Should Journalism Have?
John Cornwell
Journalist, and Director of the Science and Human Dimension
Project, University of Cambridge
- Mar 10 'We Don't Do God': Journalism and the Coverage of Faith
Brian Moynahan
Author of A History of Christianity; former Foreign Correspondent, Sunday Times